“It takes a whole club to raise a new member skier”

Our Member Roster is currently at 52 members. However, to maintain our healthy status we need new members and we need your help to spread the news. Be sure to pass out cards at all of your activities. We never know who skies until we let them know that we do.

We are continuing our push for publicity as it ranks right up there with our website for attracting new members. Word of mouth goes a long way. We have a good supply of ‘calling cards so, just request some from Charles, Pam or myself and give them to friends. Would someone who went on the Heavenly Trip please submit a write up and pictures and I will do my best to get it published?

WE'VE BEEN PLAYING

“A Heavenly Trip”

February 14-19, 2012 eight members of the Young at Heart Skiers (Selma and Greg Jones, Kathy and Beach Aten, Joyce and Marlow Muldoon, Sandy and Charles Chapman) joined the Texas Ski Council and the Lone Star Skiers for a trip to South Lake Tahoe and the ski resorts in the area.

The group arrived on Tuesday afternoon after a non eventful flight and ride from Reno to South Lake Tahoe. The first thing we noticed was mild temperatures, and a lack of snow at the lower elevations... This year to date was the lowest snow fall since records have been kept.

All got checked into Harvey's and were pleasantly surprised at the size of the rooms and the lovely views of the area from the rooms. This was valentine Day so most of the folks used Tuesday to acclimate themselves to the high attitude and prepare for the rest of the week.

Tuesday night was quite a bit colder and it snowed 4 to 6 inches. When we awoke Wednesday morning, the area was covered with fresh snow. Greg and Beach couldn't wait to head up the gondola to Heavenly Ski Resort conveniently located within easy walking distance from Harvey Hotel. The rest of us moved at a more leisurely pace with a late breakfast. Marlow had a mild case of altitude sickness, so Joyce, Sandy and Charles took a quick road trip out to Sierra at Tahoe and looked around. We also checked out the upcoming race venue for the Texas Ski Council. The eight of us had a lovely dinner at Friday Station in Harrah's Wednesday evening. Wednesday's ski conditions were not very good. High winds and blowing snow kept some folks off the mountain. However, our skiers, Greg and Beach braved the inclement weather and got in a day of skiing. Thursday morning had Greg and Beach back up the mountain, this time for near perfect ski conditions. Marlow had completely recovered, and he and Joyce went to Sierra at Tahoe for a day of skiing. Selma, Kathy, Sandy and Charles went on a guided photo shoot of Lake Tahoe, and the surrounding area. Our guide Greg, who had lived in Lake Tahoe for over 30 years, took us to places that were restricted to most people. We got some wonderful photos of the area. He was also shared a wealth of information about the history of the area. Thursday evening had the group attending a party with the Lone Star Skiers at the Hard Rock Café. Drinks and snacks were served. Selma, Charles and Sandy entered into a Black Jack tournament sponsored by the hotel. Safe to say we didn't win but the $20 was cheap entertainment.

Friday was again near perfect skiing conditions for Beach and Greg. They headed up the mountain early. Selma and Kathy went on an Emerald Bay sightseeing tour while the Muldoon's and the Chapman's went back to Sierra at Tahoe. Marlow and Joyce skied while Sandy and Charles tried snowshoeing. Later that afternoon, the rest of the group when up the gondola to join Beach and Greg at the top. Beautiful scenery.

Friday night was the Award Banquet for the Texas Ski Council. I am proud to announce that our own Greg Jones won a bronze medal at the races. Congratulations to Greg. The evening included a nice buffet dinner with a chocolate fountain for dessert. Harvey's hotel provided the ballroom and dancing after dinner. Sandy wants everyone to know that she got Charles to dance.

Saturday found Beach back up the mountain for a final day of skiing. The rest of us had a late breakfast at a long time Tahoe favorite, The Driftwood Café. The rest of the day was spent at leisure for the group. Saturday evening found us at the Harvey's signature restaurant, Kitchen Nineteen. It got its name from being on the top floor of the hotel with floor to ceiling windows overlooking the lake and surrounding mountains. It proved to be a great place for stunning sunset pictures while enjoying cocktails and dinner.

I have some personal observations on the trip. The Texas Ski Council always seems to do a good job of planning a trip. This was no exception. Lake Tahoe truly does have something for everyone. The skiing, sightseeing and casinos kept everyone entertained throughout the trip. We were somewhat disappointed with the lack of snow. It certainly dampened our enthusiasm for snowmobiling and dog sledding. The weather and elements just worked against us on this trip. Maybe we can try again next year.¹

The Lone Star Skiers made every effort to make us feel welcome. We made some new friends and invited them to interact with us on some of our activities.

In conclusion, it was a trip worth taking. All who read this should ask Marlow about “the luck of the Irish” on slot machines. Ski you soon.

IT'S SNOW FUN IN THE MAKING !

Bill Nickel is off to Utah early March- trying out those ski legs after a few years of R & R! We're all anxious to see you back on the slopes with us "Silver Bullet".

By Request: Snowmass Meatball Minestrone and Lemon Chicken Recipes

Meatball Minestrone

4 cups water
20 meatballs
1 15 oz. can undrained northern beans
1 T. beef bouillon granules
1 T. dried onions
1 t. dried basil
1 bay leaf
¼ of 12 oz. package spaghetti broken into 2 inch pieces.
1 16 oz can drained mixed vegetables
1 16 oz. can undrained tomatoes.

Grated parmesan cheese

Combine first seven ingredients. Bring to boil. Add spaghetti. Cover, simmer 20 minutes. Stir in vegetables and tomatoes. Serve topped with cheese.

Lemon Chicken

1 1/2 pounds chicken breast or chicken tenders, pounded down to ¼ " and cut into appx. 3" x 3" pieces
1/4 cup all-purpose unbleached flour
Coarse salt
2 tablespoons wok or vegetable oil, 2 turns of the pan (preferred brand: House of Tsang)
1 tablespoon (a splash) white or rice wine vinegar
1/2 cup chicken broth or stock (more if you choose to slow cook chicken at this point for a few minutes)
8 ounces (1 cup) prepared lemon curd
1/4 cup hot water
1 lemon, zested (taking care not to zest the pith)
2 scallions, thinly sliced

Directions

Pound out chicken breasts, cut into 3" pieces, Coat pieces lightly in flour, seasoned with a little salt. Heat a large skillet or a wok-shaped nonstick pan over high heat. Flash fry chicken on each side until lightly golden, 3 or 4 minutes max. Remove chicken from the pan and return pan to heat. Reduce heat to medium.

Add a splash of vinegar to the pan and let it evaporate. Add stock or broth to the pan and scrape up any drippings with a whisk. Thin curd by stirring in a little hot water. Add curd to broth and whisk to combine. Add chicken back to the pan and simmer for 1 to 2 minutes to thicken sauce and finish cooking chicken pieces through. Remove the pan from heat, add the scallions or chives and zest, and toss chicken pieces well to combine zest and scallions or chives evenly throughout the sauce. Serve with Jasmine Rice,

Cook's Notes: Wok oil infused with ginger and garlic is usually available on the International Foods aisle in many markets.

Chicken broths and stocks are available in resealable paper containers, making storage of remaining product easy and on hand in the refrigerator; they are found in the soup aisle.

Lemon curd is a sweet lemon spread available in most markets. It is on the jam/jelly aisle.
